Echops from the Caucus.—Mr. Lewis Baker, of the Register, was sitting on the first landing of the capitol stairs, yesterday morning, while the illustrious African known as "Peanut Scott" was manipulating a blacking brush with lightning speed over his pedal extremities, when belegate Calvert, of Wetzel county, ascended the stairway and paused on the landing to take a fresh stock of "breath" in his lungs. Calvert spied Baker, and after exchanging salutations, the caucus of the night before came up for discussion. The gentlemen evidently dint's look at the thing through the same spectacles, as their argument became rather heated. Finally Baker intimated that Calvert was himself, or had been, a bottor, whereupon the gentleman from the "wilds of Wetzel" retorted by calling the newspaper man a liar, and the very worst kind of a liar at that. Baker rose to make a personal explanation, and thus averted perhaps a terrible combat, which might have reddened the floor with "goah." ECHOES FROM THE CAUCUS .- Mr. Lewis

WE are surprised to see so many still sufferling with neuralgia and liberinatism, when they can be cured. We know the feeling which exists among very many—"that any medicine which is advertised must be a humbug." This may be true in some cases, but when we know of a remedy which has become so popular as Lawson's Curative, and we have such conclusive evidence of the good it has accomplished, it is more than folly not to make a trial of it, and satisfy yourselves that all the proprietors claim for it is true. In such make a trial of it, and satisfy yourselves that all the proprietors claim for it is true. In such diseases, as Rheumatien, Neuralgia, Sciatica, Headache, Sore Throat, Lame Isack, and Toolhache, we can safely say that no remedy, either in physician's prescription or in proprietary form, has effected more cures than Lawson's Curative.
